

You're Invited:

Join Us for an Exclusive Learning Adventure for Road Scholar Institute Network Members!

As a member of the Road Scholar Institute Network, we invite you to join Road Scholar for an upcoming exclusive learning adventure, The Civil Rights Movement: Atlanta, Montgomery, Selma, Birmingham, from Sept. 7 - 14, 2025.

Join other Lifelong Learning Institute members from across the country as we journey south together into the heart of the civil rights movement where you will:

- Follow in the footsteps of the venerable Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his legendary march in 1965 from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama — now a National Historic Trail.
- Hear the moving story of Rosa Parks and the Montgomery bus boycott.
- Walk across the Selma Bridge with an activist who took part in this peaceful protest that devolved into “Bloody Sunday.”

During this eight-day program led by Road Scholar experts, you'll learn how these catalysts ignited a movement that would define this pivotal moment in American history and discuss how they echo through the racial climate in America today.

Like all Road Scholar learning adventures, you'll be part of a group (limited to 24 participants for this program) who share your love of history and discovery. Not-for-profit Road Scholar is dedicated to providing extraordinary access and stimulating discourse and friendship among older adults for whom learning is the journey of a lifetime.
