

OLLI at DU Syllabus

Facilitator	Larry Tannenbaum
Facilitator Email	larrydtannenbaum@comcast.net
Course Title	MUSIC IS POETRY: AN ECLECTIC SELECTION OF SINGER-SONGWRITERS
Additional Facilitator	Pat Clisham
Site	OLLI on the Move
Term	Winter 2025
Course Sessions	4 Weeks
	The main title of this course is Music is Poetry and this premise will be shown, in this reduced course, by exploring the songs of four singer-songwriters. During the course, we will examine what poetry is and explore the use of poetic devices in poems and songs. These four artists were among the best of the Twentieth Century at writing both songs and lyrics. Make no mistake, there will be lots of music, via audio or video presentation!
Week 1	February 24, 2025: Leonard Cohen, I Have Tried In My Way To Be Free
Week 2	March 3, 2025: Joni Mitchell, Something's Lost, But Something's Gained In Living Every Day
Week 3	March 10. 2025: Sam Cooke, I Know A Change Gonna Come
Week 4	March 17, 2025: Bob Dylan, The Answer, My Friend Is Blowing In The Wind